ASK SIBWENI

“Hello Sibweni. What’s the best way to get rid of an addiction? I’m dealing with a bad sexual addiction (full details withheld) that I’m trying to get rid of.”

- Anonymous.

“Hey anonymous. We understand the struggle. The best of us have demons we don’t show anyway. But, the best we can say is: The best way to get rid of a bad addiction is to get a good addiction.”

- Sibweni.

The Crime that is

BY FYI Reporter

All of a sudden, a phrase that's become a norm over the years – suddenly feels like a crime.

This week, an Indian man identified as Anand Mandivar was arrested for calling North Chairperson of the Human Rights Defenders Coalition, Happy Mhango, “a dog.”

He's since been handed a 3 years suspended sentence.

Meaning, if he commits any offence within 3 years, he immediately goes to jail.

Furthermore, the court in Mzuzu, where the Indian man was found guilty, ordered Mandivar to pay K700 Grand as compensation to Mhango.

Perharps, a wake up call to girls of our time calling men, “dogs”? The Malawian Penal Code Ch0701s182 the use of insulting language, by saying any person who uses insulting language or otherwise conducts himself in a manner likely to give such provocation to any person as to cause such person to break the peace or to commit any offence against the person shall be liable to pay a fine and to imprisonment.

CHITIPA FIRST WIN UNDER NYAMBOSE

BY Martin Mpungah

Chitipa United notched their first win under Christopher Nyambose on Sunday, with a 1-0 victory over MAFCO fc courtesy of Khumbo Ng'ambi.

Nyambose was appointed as Chitipa United caretaker coach in January to rescue the team from relegation following the resignation of Alex Ngwira.

“We are happy with him. The way the team is playing gives us confidence that He is the right person.” Club’s general secretary Duma Ngoma said.

Chitipa United are on the last spot of League table with seven points from ten games and they are expected to visit Blantyre this weekend for their two league matches against Mighty Wanderers and Mighty Tigers on Saturday and Sunday respectively.
